- * Start with procedure: Map notice, cure, hearing, and decision duties before debating the aesthetics of document hierarchy and
- * Make the decision point explicit: Your appeal should answer which document controls the fine with exhibits, not adjectives.
- * Compare options deliberately: Know whether you are closer to State statute, CC&Rs, or Rules / guidelines before you escalate
- * Write one remedy sentence: Boards skim-state waive, reduce, re-notice, or reverse in a single line tied to document hierarchy
- * Keep escalation proportionate: Match collections risk and dollar amount to mediation, counsel, or court only after the packet is

== PROCESS FLOW ==

1. Capture the trigger

== DECISION TREE (print path) ==

Use this yes/no path to decide your next action on document hierarchy and conflict resolution. Outcomes are educational starting points-confirm against your CC&Rs and state law.

Q (start): Do you already have written materials covering document hierarchy and conflict resolution?

- Yes - I have notices or governing excerpts -> go to quality

- No - I am starting from a verbal warning or rumor -> go to collect

Q (collect): Can you obtain the written notice, fine schedule, and relevant CC&R/rule pages within 48 hours?

- Yes - I can request or download them -> Request the file in writing today, then re-run this tree for document hierarchy and conflict resolution. Do not rely on memory alone.

- No - the association will not provide records -> Send a dated records request, keep delivery proof, and note the refusal in your appeal packet about document hierarchy and conflict resolution.

Q (quality): Does your packet clearly address which document controls the fine?

- Yes - defects and facts are indexed -> go to deadline

- Not yet - gaps remain -> Fill gaps with dated exhibits before you argue document hierarchy and conflict resolution. Incomplete packets invite denials on procedure.

Q (deadline): Is an appeal, cure, or response deadline still open?

- Yes - time remains -> Calendar the deadline, submit a written position on document hierarchy and conflict resolution, and request a hearing or written decision in the same letter.

- Unsure / possibly missed -> Ask in writing for the controlling deadline and whether late submissions are accepted. Preserve document hierarchy and conflict resolution arguments even while clarifying timing.

- No - the window closed -> Document why the window was missed (late notice, portal failure, etc.) and escalate via payment-under-protest, mediation, or counsel depending on stakes.
